15. Braiding is optional, but encouraged.
16. Year End High Score Awards will be awarded at this show based on points accumulated at April through August Seacoast shows.

Seacoast Show Series FAQ's

Can I cross enter between divisions?

Yes, horse/rider combinations may cross enter between divisions, as long as they meet specifications for each division entered.

Can adults show ponies?

Yes, adults may ride ponies.

Can horses/ponies be shown by more than one rider?

Yes, horses/ponies may be shown by more than one rider, just not in the same class.

May I show multiple horses in the same class?

A rider can only compete on one horse in any equitation and/or pleasure class, however, riders may show more than one horse in hunter over fence classes, and/or jumper classes.

Are martingales permitted?

Martingales are not permitted in any flat classes (ie. hunter under saddle, equitation flat, or pleasure classes).

Standing martingales and running martingales used in the conventional manner are allowed in all over fences classes.

Is it permissible for my horse to wear boots or polo bandages?

Boots or leg wraps of any kind are not permitted in any hunter or pleasure classes, but are allowed in equitation and jumper classes.

Is my horse allowed to wear a nose net?

Yes, we allow nose nets to be worn in any class at our shows.

Are bitless bridles and/or hackamores permitted?

Yes, horses may be shown in bitless bridles and hackamores.

Can I show with a crop or whip?

Crops/whips are allowed in all classes, however, they must not exceed 30 inches in length.

What is the difference between hunter, jumper, equitation, and pleasure classes?

Hunter classes are judged on the horse's way of going and performance.

Equitation classes are judged on the rider's position, effectiveness, and performance.

Jumper classes are strictly performance classes judged on jumping and time faults.

Pleasure classes are judged on horse's manners and performance.

What is the difference between Prep Hunter and unjudged warm up?

Prep Hunter is essentially a judged warm up class...horses jump a posted course, at the height of their choice, and are judged and placed. Unjudged warm up allows horses/riders the opportunity to jump the jumps in the show ring prior to riding in classes that are judged.

How many jumping refusals are allowed before being disqualified from a class?

In all over fences classes, three refusals result in disqualification.

If I fall off, will I be disqualified?

A fall will result in disqualification from the class in which the fall occurred.

Do horses need to be microchipped to show at USHJA Outreach shows?

No, horses do not need to be microchipped to show at USHJA Outreach shows.

Are stallions allowed?

No, stallions are not permitted at our shows. Stallions are typically prohibited from classes open to junior riders, which all of our classes are.

Are mules allowed to show?

Yes, mules may be ridden in any of our divisions.

May I pay with a credit card?

Yes, credit cards will be accepted with a 3.5% service fee.
